

1100.19 When an appeal concerns a question of athletic eligibility:

A. when a student is trying to gain athletic eligibility, the student is considered ineligible until the final determination is made.

B. when a student is trying to retain athletic eligibility, the student is considered eligible until the appeal hearing and a final determination is made.