

CIF MODEL COACH AWARD

Goal: To recognize coaches who are positive role models within our schools and the community.

Criteria: A model coach must have demonstrated and taught the six core ethical values: trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring and good citizenship (the “Six Pillars of Character_{sm}”). The highest potential of sports is achieved when coaches consciously Teach, Enforce, Advocate and Model (T.E.A.M) these values and are committed to the ideal of Pursuing Victory with Honor_{sm}. They also must have a minimum of 10 years active coaching at the high school level.

Award Process: Each CIF-member school can nominate a maximum of one male and one female coach who best reflect the values of Pursuing Victory with Honor_{sm} and are positive influences for California’s high school student-athletes. Nominations must be forwarded to your local CIF Section office by November 28, which will forward its selections to the CIF State office no later than November 30. Late nominations will not be read. In the nomination process, please include no less than two letters of support for the nominated coaches. These shall include specific exemplary sportsmanship and behavior/actions on and off the playing field. The nomination form must be signed by the Principal and included with the letters.
